

Dirk Dresselhaus - biography

Born on 28.08.1970 in Bielefeld, Germany

1988 – 1997

Singer, songwriter and guitarist in the experimental Indierock-band Hip Young Things, who released 4 albums and a couple of maxis on Glitterhouse Records.

since 1992

Next to Christopher Uhe member of the 2-man-band Locust Fudge who released 2 albums & 1 ep on Glitterhouse Rec. & Sticksister Rec.. After almost 18 years of silence Locust Fudge played a short tour as trio with Japanese drummer Chikara Aoshima in December 2014 to celebrate the re-release of the first 2 albums as double vinyl.

since 1997

Schneider TM, the experimental electronic pop-project with part-time co-writer Michael Beckett (Kptmichigan, ex-BNBC, ex-Tuesday Weld). Since 1998 they played a couple of hundreds international live-shows* together.

Schneider TM released 3 albums and 1 split ep (w/ Kptmichigan) on City Slang / Mute, 1 album of different remixes for other artists and one 7" on Earsugar Rec. and one 7" on MirrorWorldMusic. Since 2010 the project Schneider TM is also improvisational & freeform orientated which resulted in the releases of 'Construction Sounds' (2012), an album based on field recordings of Berlin construction sites and 'Guitar Sounds' (2013), an album based on processed electric guitar which were released by the label Bureau B from Hamburg.

1998 – 2000

Host of the weekly alternative-show 'Wah Wah' on German music-television Viva 2.

since 1999

Angel, a noise-band with Ilpo Väisänen of Pan sonic.

The first album was released in 2002 on the French label Bip_Hop and other albums followed on Oral & Editions Mego from Vienna. Since 2004 they collaborate with guest musicians like Icelandic cellist/multi-instrumentalist Hildur Gudnadottir (Lost In Hildurness, Mum etc..), the Swedish electroacoustic composer BJ Nilsen, Reinhold Friedl of zeitkratzer, Lucio Capece from Argentina, Oren Ambarchi (Sun, Sunn 0))) etc..) from Melbourne and Japanese dancer Tomoko Nakasato..

1999 – 2002

Member of Paincake, a band around the Japanese artist, singer & ex-junior geisha Hanayo, who toured together through Thailand, Japan, England, France, Germany & Italy.

2000 - 2006

Dr. Drek, an experimental electronic duo with Kptmichigan, who released tracks on some international compilations and a 7" on Earsugar.

2004

Mr. Schmuck's Farm, an improvisational electro-acoustic project together with cellist Hildur Gudnadottir. The first album 'Good Sound' was released in summer 2005 on Oral.

2004

Dirk went to several jails in Berlin to record some (rather Hip Hop-ish) tracks with young prisoners for a radio-play by Paul Plamper called 'Release', which was broadcasted a couple of times on the german radio-stations WDR & NDR and released as double-cd (incl. video-clips, remixes & outtakes) on Lieblingslied Records.

2005

Schneider TM made music for a 3 hours long radio play by Paul Plamper called 'Hochhaus' which is based on J.G. Ballard's novel High Rise.

2006/2007

Schneider TM did sound design, remixing and live-processing for the music theater piece 'The Scorpionfish' by Joanna Dudley and Rufus Didwizus which was performed in Berlin, Luxembourg, Stockholm, and Adelaide, Australia.

2007

Dirk Dresselhaus and Michael Beckett started their own label MirrorWorldMusic and released the 'Schneider TM und Lustfaust' - 7" as MWM001. The concept of the label is a mix of online-releases in cooperation with other labels (including large parts of each of their back-catalogs dating back to the early 90's) and occasional physical formats.

2007/2008

Score for feature film '1. Mai' by Ludwig & Glaser, Sven Taddicken and Jakob Ziemnicki which was the opening movie of Perspective, the German movie-section of the Berlinale International Filmfestival 2008.

2008

Score for feature film '66/67' by Ludwig & Glaser which was co-produced by Arte & ZDF and shown at several film festivals in Europe (Zürich, Hof etc..) and in German cinemas in autumn 2009. It won the award for 'best movie in german language' at Zürich International Film Festival.

2009

Music for the dance-piece '2109' by Ingo Reulecke and Lukas Matthaei in several locations in Berlin.

2009/2010

Duet-partner of Joanna Dudley in the experimental music-theater piece 'Louis & Bebe' which was premiered in December 2009 at Sophiensaele, Berlin and also broadcasted as radio piece at Deutschlandradio Kultur / Klangkunst in 2011.

In 2013 the piece was part of the Dark Mofo Festival in Hobart, Tasmania.

2010

Songs & score for the feature film 'Polnische Ostern' by Jakob Ziemnicki which was co-produced by Polyphon & ZDF. The main character Werner Grabosch was played by legendary east-german actor Henry Hübchen.

2011

Film score for the the documentary film 'Reine Männersache' by Susanne Binniger which was broadcasted November 2011 as 'Kleines Fernsehspiel' at German TV-station ZDF.

2011

Schneider TM - field recording & processing workshop 'Sample & Hold' for the Goethe-Institut in Skopje, Macedonia and a live-show of 'Construction Sounds' together with video-artist Lillevan at De:sonanz Festival, Skopje.

2011

Schneider TM organized a 24 hours nonstop concert for the official Kleistfestival at Maxim Gorki Theater within a drone-concert on three church-organs at Marienkirche in Berlin which was released as download & 20 CD-boxset on Paul Plamper's radio play-portal Hoerspielpark (www.hoerspielpark.de). He invited Ilpo Väisänen, Michael Beckett, Ronald Lippok & Japanese dancer Tomoko Nakasato to join in.

Almost the same line-up (Alexander Großzeit stood in for Ronald Lippok on drums) played a concert together with ex-Can vocalist Damo Suzuki three days later which was filmed by Dietmar Post of Play Loud! for an upcoming concert movie & live album.

since 2011

Sound- & dance performances as Schneider TM & Tomoko Nakasato + varying guest artists & musicians.

2012

Live concerts and studio recordings as duo & trio together with Jochen Arbeit (Einstürzende Neubauten, Die Haut) and part-time drummer Claas Großzeit. The album 'Live At HBC' of Jochen Arbeit / Schneider TM / Claas Großzeit was released in October 2012 as limited CD on the Hungarian Label Last Foundation and as download on MWM.

2012

Film scores for the short films 'In Der Überzahl' by Carsten Ludwig feat. Ulrich Thomsen (for ZDF, Das Kleine Fernsehspiel, winner of film festival Max Ophüls Preis, Saarbrücken 2013 in the category 'best main actor' for Max Mauff) and 'Teilhard' by Christoph Ischinger feat. Jürgen Heinrich (for Bayerischer Rundfunk).

2012
